
SUMMARY

A dedicated graduate of computer science with background and experience in Java and C++ pursuing a front-end software development position. Excels as a team player and adapts quickly to situations through the experiences gathered as a student leader and collaborative member in event programming organizations.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science Degree in Computer Science, 2015.

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT AUSTIN — Austin, TX
GPA 3.0

SKILL SETS AND QUALIFICATIONS PROFILE

- Programming Experience: Proficient with Java and C++, familiar with Python and JavaScript. Knowledgeable with software such as Joomla! and Android Studio.
 - Flexible: Able to utilize different operating systems including Windows and Linux as well as Android and iOS for mobile. Always open to learning new technologies.
 - Multilingual: Fluent in Japanese and English, familiar with Tagalog and Spanish.
 - Communication & Presentation: Exceptional teamwork skills gained from student event programming as well as attention to detail and organization in forms of reports, comments and structure in code, and notes.
-

EXPERIENCES AND PROJECTS

- Taiko Restaurant: In progress — A website for a local Japanese restaurant in Houston, Texas using Joomla! and its related tools.
- Color Me This!: Beta phase — A semester-long project using Android Studio. Created for an Android mobile application development class, C S 371M.
 - <http://colormethis.weebly.com/>
 - Implemented core functions such as the camera, SQLite database, and the workspace layout.
- Leadership and event planning experience gained through University of Texas at Austin Campus Events + Entertainment, a student event programming organization.
 - Served as a Membership Development officer and Events Coordinator officer for two years, helping gain and retain membership in organizations as well as taking on the lead role in planning various events that catered to hundreds of students.
 - Planned and executed notable events for students across UT campus such as Lunar New Year, InspirAsian, and ChillFest, all boasting an average of above 500 attendees annually.